SUMMARY

I am currently a student athlete at Emilio Aguinaldo College Manila. Taking up the course IT. As a student, I spend my free time creating websites using HTML and CSS, and also have expertise in creating simple photo edits and short videos for advertising. I have been an athlete for 14 years, I play the sport Taekwondo, and being an athlete has helped me hone such skills like time management, discipline, and determination, which I carry with myself throughout my life
